漫游世遗城

Wandering Through a City of World Heritage Sites

泉州，古称“刺桐”，位于中国东南沿海，是海上丝绸之路起点、世界遗产城市、中国历史文化名城，也是闽南文化发源地，以闽南语为主要方言，源远流长的海丝文化、闽南文化仍遍布在街头巷尾，植根于日常生活之中。

10-14世纪，泉州在繁荣的国际海洋贸易中蓬勃发展，成为各国商旅云集、多元文化交融的“东方第一大港”，22个世界遗产点展现了一个浩瀚的历史与博物世界。

半城烟火半城仙是对泉州最好的诠释。古迹、古建、古早味都弥漫在古城的方寸之间，却也不乏新姿态，它们相伴相生，静候游人。白岩松说：“这是你一生一定要去一次的城市。”

Quanzhou, known as "Zayton" in ancient times, is located along the southeast coast of China. It is the starting point of the Maritime Silk Road, a World Heritage City, a renowned historical and cultural city in China, and the birthplace of Southern Fujian culture. With Southern Fujian dialect as its primary dialect, the time-honored Maritime Silk Road culture and Southern Fujian culture are still pervasive in the streets and alleys, and deeply rooted in daily life in the city.

From the 10th to the 14th centuries, Quanzhou flourished amidst the bustling international maritime trade, becoming the "Greatest Eastern Port" where travelers from various countries converged and diverse cultures mingled. Its 22 World Heritage sites offer a glimpse into a vast world rich in history and with many museums.

"Half of the city is filled with the hustle and bustle of human life, while the other half is enchanted by the fairy-tale ambience" best captures the essence of Quanzhou. Ancient relics, historical buildings, and traditional flavors permeate every corner of the old city, yet it is not devoid of new vitality. They coexist harmoniously, awaiting the arrival of visitors. "This is a city you must visit once in your lifetime," prominent Chinese news anchor Bai Yansong once remarked.
